Pay Large Tax Share
Two checks, amounting to more than $9 million, were presented to Los Angeles County Tax Collector H. L. Byram Friday, December 10 by officials of two major Southern California utilities.
Southern California Gas Co. and Southern California Edison Co. presented the checks in payment for ad valorem taxes for the first half of the current tax year.
They were the largest payments in history for the two utilities. Total tax payment last year — the previous high — for the two utilities amounted to $7,548,301.59 for Southern California Edison Co., and $5,008,888.69 for the Southern California Gas Co.
